WHAT HAS BEEN FOUND IN RAMSEY

NEWEST BONANZA CAMP HAS HUGE LEDGE THAT EQUALS FAMOUS GOLD BAR—MAY BE LOST MINE—FEVERISH ACTIVITY.

The struggle is on at Ramsey. Yesterday The Appeal published unverified reports for what they were worth, to the effect that great strikes had been made in the new district.

Today it is learned, from competent authority, that the strike consists of a ledge of gold bearing ore 12 feet wide that averages $80 the ton across the face. The owners have parted with a portion of it to Goldfield people and there are things doing in Ramsey this week.

It is stated that 200,000 feet of rough lumber has been ordered with which to build the first houses needed in the new camp, also that men have been put to work taking out ore for shipment.

The location work on other claims, adjoining and on extensions of the new bonanza is being done with feverish activity and holders of claims in this city are getting ready for a boom in the new district.

Ramsey is about 25 miles from this city and is reached by the Dayton-Carson river road, and by the Sutro road down the river. The camp is half a dozen miles up from Carson river, opposite Stockton flat, in a range of dry hills, and the whole mountain side is a mass of ore carrying gold and silver values.

The strike last made is in a huge dyke that has been practically overlooked ever since the camp was first found, and there are four claims on this dyke, that of Clark, the original locator, and those of the Toll-Tickner company. On the north end of the dyke the locations are unknown, though they have been made.

It is known to old residents of that part of the state that a ledge was found on the north slope of the mountain chain in which the new district is located, that was exceedingly rich.

Two men took out 1400 pounds of rock and carted it to Dayton where it was milled. The net return in bullion was $2100. The man that located this ledge has died since, and the other person has never been able to find it, as the dead man before he passed away covered it up in a fit of jealousy and went to work on a ranch in the Truckee valley.

His partner was an old man at that time and he hoped to outlive him, but died before the partner did. This partner, now an old man has been unable to find the ledge, a deposit he remembers distinctly from the fact that an inch stringer in it was almost half fine and wire gold.

There is a huge deposit of carbonate of lead near this lost mine, and another of galena and silver in a ridge about two miles from it, all of which ledges it is believed have been rediscovered in the new district called Ramsey.

Men money and material are headed for the scene of the strike and Ramsey is emerging into a regular Nevada bonanza camp, with this justification, the new strike is said to equal the famous Gold Bar strike in the Bullfrog district in size, and to exceed it in value per ton.

CONSTANT DELPHI FOUND DEAD IN A GLACIER

Last Washington's birthday, Feb. 22, while a blinding snow storm was descending on the mountain side, Constant Delphi started for the Danhauser wood camp.

He never arrived there and yesterday his dead and blackened body was found in the middle of a huge snow bank, visible from the city on the upper slopes of the range.

How long the man wandered in the drifts, and what sufferings he experienced only can be guessed by the fact that it has taken five months for the sun to melt the snow that covered him.

Atty. Foujade, ran across the body yesterday and such was the state of it that he could not approach near enough to take care of it. He returned and informed the city officials that drainage from the body would in a few hours enter the city water supply, whereupon men were sent to remove it.

Deceased was a brother of Felix Delphi, was 35 years of age and unmarried. The formality of an inquest will be carried out.

AGREEMENT IS REACHED WITH INSURANCE AGENTS

At a meeting in the governor's office, at which the agents for the insurance companies holding policies on state property were present, it was decided by the governor and the insurance commissioner to allow existing policies to stand for the present, the agents agreeing to refund the proportion of premium due the state in case of cancellation.

The arrangement followed a meeting at which it was decided that the state property should be insured in those companies only that are able to show proper financial standing since the losses incurred at San Francisco. No wenching company will be allowed to hold a policy in force on state property or to do business in this state.

MRS. JONES GETS DIVORCE

Mrs. Margaret Jones was granted a divorce Monday evening by Judge Murphy in district court, from Joe Jones, a miner now in Goldfield.

The prayer was made on the ground of desertion and failure to provide and custody of three minor children was given the plaintiff.

MRS. JACOB MULLER ILL

Mrs. Jacob Muller is very ill and is not expected to live the night. She is an old and well known resident of the city and has sons and daughters, to say nothing of hosts of friends, who are hoping she will rally and be spared for years to come.

TEACHERS EXAMINATION

Examination of teachers is going forward in the office of the county superintendent of schools. Six candidates have appeared and asked for certificates.

MRS. FRIEND ADMINISTRATRIX

Mrs. C. W. Friend has been appointed administratrix of the estate of the late J. T. Cochran. The estate amounts to about $4000.

MILL FOR SILVER PEAK

M. J. O'Meara and T. J. Lynch returned from Denver Friday morning. They have been looking after the tests made on ores from the Silver Peak-Vaconda properties and announce that they were most satisfactory. As announced by their engineer, Curtis L. Knight, upon his return from Denver two or three days ago, the property will be equipped with milling plant at 21 once.

DAN REGAN IS FREE AGAIN

BOARD OF PARDONS GIVES HIM RELEASE AND REFUSES APPLICATION OF E. S. KENDRICKS—ONE KILLED HIS MOTHER-IN-LAW, THE OTHER HIS FATHER-IN-LAW.

The board of pardons granted an unconditional pardon to Dan Regan of Sparks this morning and refused to grant one to E. S. Kendrick of Elko.

Regan was committed for manslaughter, under a sentence of three years, from Washoe county and Kendrick's is serving a life sentence for murder in the second degree. Regan killed his mother-in-law in Sparks in a fit of drunken fury, and Kendrick's killed his father-in-law after having served a term for an attempt to kill his sister-in-law. Both men have reformed and promised to live orderly lives, but Kendrick's was refused a pardon.

The case of Tony Christie was considered this afternoon. The board will be in session the greater part of the week.

Yesterday when word was sent to the state prison to release "Old Tex", the man wept for joy. He was offered the usual clothes and money or ticket, but declined all but the clothes and money. He refused to be taken to the city in the prison wagon, and struck out over the hills he has gazed at with longing eyes and disappeared in the distant canyons.

Where he went, why he went in that way except that he naturally wished to avoid curious eyes, cannot be told. After serving years in the dreary stone yard of the state prison, he dropped from sight, to start once more in life, though two or years and feeble with approaching age.

Regan was released shortly after noon and came into the city, en route to Washoe county.

SHERMAN BRYANT TRIAL—JURY IS SECURED

RENO, July 10.—The jury to try Sherman Bryant was secured at 11 o'clock today and the trial is proceeding. Testimony was being taken as The Appeal went to press, but up to that time nothing except the bare legal requirements had been complied with. The real interest will come on cross examination of witnesses. It is impossible to verify the report that A. C. Pratt, of this city, was an eye witness of the killing.

RENO, July 10.—Almost the entire day Monday was consumed in an effort to get a jury in the case of Sherman Bryant, accused of the murder in Washoe county of Daniel Casco.

It is claimed that former surveyor general A. C. Pratt was an eye witness to the murder, and that he is now in Mono county, not having been subpoenaed to attend the trial. Fireman Minor was compelled to leave his engine on the V. & T. mail train to attend the trial. The statement that Pratt saw the murder is so indefinite as to authority, that it is felt he may not be summoned to attend and testify.

ORE SHIPMENTS

The ore shipments over the Tonopah Railroad for the week ending Thursday night, as reported by the Western Ore Purchasing Company, aggregated 2336 tons, divided as follows: From Tonopah—Tonopah Company, 574 tons; Tonopah Extension, 391 tons; Belmont, 221 tons; Montana-Tonopah, 107 tons; Midway, 100 tons; North Star, 60 tons; West End, 33 tons; From Goldfield—820 tons. From Lone Mountain—Nevada Alpine, 30 tons.

CITY TRUSTEES DECLARE SEWERS MUST BE LAID

The city fathers have declared that those persons who have not connected with the sewer system must be compelled to do so, and have instructed the city marshal to see that they do.

The sewers have been in for some time and were an expensive thing when they were put in. The only reason for the expenditure of the money was to improve the sanitary conditions of the city.

Many property holders have not yet connected with them and these the city fathers propose to compel to do so, as the delay is a menace to public health.

The board ordered also that Georgia street be opened, after hearing a number of property owners in favor of said action.

ANOTHER REPUBLICAN SCRAP HAS BEEN STARTED

Judge C. W. Long, of Goldfield has been booming J. M. Mitchell of that place for governor on the republican ticket. Now comes a prominent republican, one who knows what he is saying, and declares that Long has no authority to boom Mitchell.

There is a lot of cross purpose in the republican party of this state this summer and when it comes to the scratch very few of them will stand for the bunch that proposes to get into the saddle by some hook or crook.

Two big wars, one over the successor of Judge Hawley, and one over the gubernatorial nominee, will keep some of the faithful busy, for some time to come.

FAMOUS CROWING DOG IS DEAD

SHARPSBURG, Ky., July 10.—S. F. Deal, this county, has just lost by death his famous crowing dog, Old Joe. The animal could exactly mimic the crow of a rooster. Deal has been offered large sums for the dog by museum people, but he refused to part with him. In the night and early mornings Old Joe joined in with the feathered chattering, and his "crow" could not be distinguished from that of the barnyard fowls.

CHOLERA INCREASING AT MANILA

MANILA, July 10.—Despite the most strenuous efforts of the health authorities to stamp out the cholera, the dread disease continues to claim many victims here.

For the 24 hours ending at 8 o'clock this morning, 23 deaths and 29 new cases were reported in this city, and five deaths and 12 new cases were reported in the provinces.

The report tonight showed 19 new cases since midnight and 10 deaths. Robt. Isobertiz and a man named Hart are Americans stricken.

JOE MAGILL IN HONDURAS

RENO, July 10.—Joe Magill, one of the best known young men of Nevada, formerly a leading broker in Tonopah and later located at the Waldorf-Astoria, New York, is now in Honduras, and there is a mystery associated with his disappearance, as there is to the departure of many others to the unextraditable country.

"YOU'RE A HOG, SNUFFING FOR SALT, AIR" SAID SIM

The following taken from a recent issue of the White Pine News would tend to show that Ely is becoming independent of that outside easy money brought into many of Nevada's boom mining camps:

"I long for a breath of salt air from the bosom of the Pacific" remarked a Santa Cruz man in Ely the other day. "What's the matter with a breath from that desert?" inquired "Big Sim" who is loyal to every sagebrush in Nevada. You kind of fellows, continued Sim "have no business here in Nevada. The dust may spile your clothes and the sun discolor your white-livered face. You fellows make me tired. Why you don't know a horse from a cow or a piece of rich ore from a piece of grindstone. You set yourself up to come here and tell us old sage brushers how to live, when you don't know enough to boil water. Go back and breathe your salt air from the bosom of the Pacific for you're rank poison to the air of Ely. Go back to your mother and tell her not to let you loose again. Why you have no more business in a hustling mining camp than an angel from heaven in hell. In politics you are a Populist, in business you're a damned fool and in Ely society you're a hog, snuffing for salt air."
